Prominent among the proposed new buildings will be the new Fine Arts Center which will probably consist of a group of buildings situated in the large open area across the roads from the Chapel and Baldwin Hall. The funds for this Center are being provided by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Alfred Lloyd of Chicago in memory of their daughter, Ann Baldwin Lloyd, who died March 27, 1947. Mr. Lloyd, who is the brother of President Lloyd, graduated from Maryville in 1918. Mrs. Lloyd is a graduate of Vassar College.

Boy of the Year

... Credit

The 1948 Chilhowean takes very great pleasure in introducing the Chilhowean Boy and Girl of the Year.

A comparatively new Tradition on Maryville campus, the Girl of the Year is being presented for the third consecutive year. The fellow students of the 1948 Chilhowean Miss know why she was chosen as this year's Girl of the Year. Chosen for leadership, scholarship, service, personality and character we feel that she typifies the Maryville College Girl of Today and the Maryville College woman of tomorrow.

Where Credit Is Due

This year is the first year for the Chilhowean Boy of the Year and we feel we could not find one better suited to lead the procession of names that will follow in the years to come. A leader in religious and academic activities of Maryville Campus, we are assured of his future.

They are Traditionally Yours, Scott McClure and Elsie Jean Cotton. The Chilowean Boy and Girl of 1948.

The Rev. Dr. Clifford Barbour, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Knoxville, was the leader of the seventy-second series of the February Meetings on Maryville campus. Due to the loss of Voorhees Chapel, the morning meetings were held in the Alumni Gymnasium and the evening meetings were held in New Providence Presbyterian Church. Using as his topic the important problems of everyday life, Dr. Barbour gave all those who heard him a great deal of the wisdoms and truths of Christianity. A dynamic speaker, a fascinating personality, and his true Christian character quickly won and held his listeners.

Returning for the twenty-sixth year, the Rev. Dr. Sidney E. Stringham of the New McKendree Methodist Church, Jackson, Missouri, again led the congregation in the music that is such an important part of the February meetings. His obvious love and knowledge of music helped give the February meetings that emphasis and meaning that will not be forgotten soon.

By their wisdom ye shall know them

Well known in Christian circles throughout the nation, Dr. Ralph Waldo Lloyd has played perhaps the most important part in the successful future of Maryville College. The responsibility of the building campaign takes Dr. Lloyd away from the campus on long trips frequently, yet his is still the role of the active, vitally interested president.

Graduating from Maryville College in 1915, he received his Bachelor of Divinity from McCormick Seminary in 1924, his Doctor of Divinity from Maryville in 1929 and the Honorary LL.D. from Centre College in 1940. This is Dr. Lloyd's eighteenth year as Maryville College President.

STUDENT COUNCIL

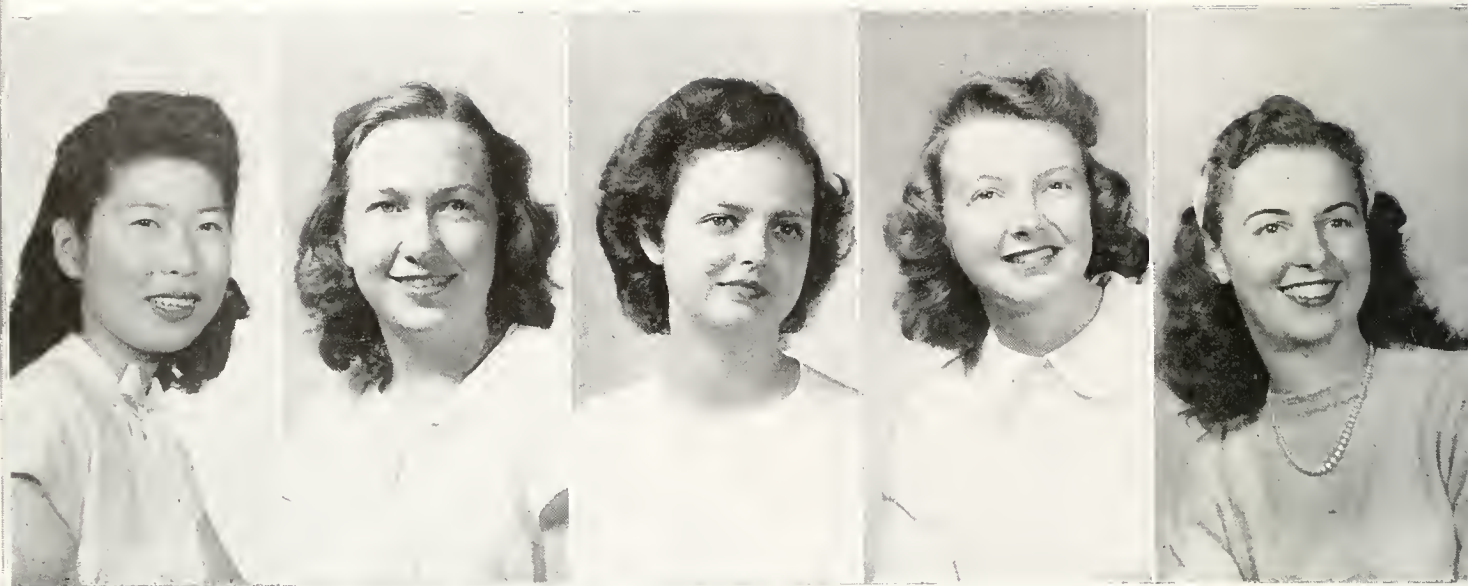

Organized in 1923, the Student Council of Maryville College has become to each student the vital and necessary student organization on "The Hill". The twenty-seven members are representative of the entire student body and are continuously striving in behalf of it.

Objectively, it creates an atmosphere of co-operation between students and faculty, and the opportunity for student sentiment.

The Student Council has achieved through endless efforts the recreation center, Town Night, provisions for more successful social programs on campus, along with numerous other student social privileges.

The full support on the part of each individual has made the past year pleasant and effective, thanks to a well organized Student Council.

Two of the most recent organizations at Maryville in the past three years are the All Girls' Choir organized in 1945 and the Men's Glee Club re-organized in 1946. Both are under the direction of Professor Curtis Hughes.

The activities of these organizations extend through-out the college year and offer much satisfaction and pleasure to large audiences.

The All Girl Choir renders each season various programs at Chapel, Vespers, and churches. They have participated in the City Choir Festival and Handel's "Messiah". The combined groups gave a concert version of an operetta.

Even though comparatively new organizations, both are a definite part of the religious activity and entertainment of the campus and both furnish inspiration and pleasure to all who listen.

"Giant Killers". That's the name the 1947 Highlanders made for themselves by consecutively defeating two previously undefeated teams and bringing their season to a terrific climax for a 7-7 tie with Carson-Newman.

For a second year the Scottie eleven kept a clear record of not having lost a game, and bounced every opponent that huddled on Wilson Field. Defeat came only once, in the '47 season when Coach Honaker was absent from the bench due to illness for his first football game in his 26 years as the Highlanders coach.

As a football season, the year 1947 was a gridiron mastery for the "lads of Lombe" who were heralded as true Tennessee "Giant Killers."

1947-SPORTSCOOP-1948

By: HERB McCALLUM

FOOTBALL—The rise to football recognition for the 1947 Highlanders was not the easiest road. After the customary downing of little Hiwassee, and the set-back at Cookeville, the Highlanders pounded Centre in the second away game of the season. On Wilson Field the highly touted East Tennessee Teachers failed to show the Scots an active struggle. Competition went up when Emory and Henry's vaunted Wasps came in—then the "Giants."

The Scots dealt Sewanee the Purple and White's worst defeat in 35 years in a game which the Tigers had entered unscored upon and without an opponent having crossed their 35-yard line.

Next, Middle Tennessee's Blue Raiders presented the only undefeated and untied eleven in the state—before meeting Maryville's "Giant Killers."

Then Carson-Newman loomed as the only undefeated team left in the South as they came to visit the Highland Clan.

Star lettermen who ended their football careers on the Scottie eleven this year included Lloyd Anderson, a gifted grappler at guard; Ronald "Cotton" Easter, a guard who captained the '47 squad; Robert "Pie" Garner, winner of Little All American recognition at center; Ken Talbott, alternate captain and veteran of four years, at end; and Frank Still, who lettered at center in '42 and at end in '46 and '47.

BASKETBALL—Already past the half-way mark for the current cage season, at this writing the Highland Hoopmen had eight wins and five reverses for the record.

Starting their hardwood campaign with five regulars held over from the '47 team, the Scottie Cagers waged a heavy schedule with strong hoop opponents.

Seven tilts remained on the slate at this writing, and the Scots were yet to go into action against Lincoln Memorial, Carson-Newman, and Tennessee Wesleyan in the remaining cage contests.

TRACK—Despite a shift in their training program two weeks before the first meet caused by the resignation of Track Coach Walter J. Mehl, the Scot thin-clads came from behind a 99½-to-31½ defeat at U-T, to take eight out of fourteen events for a 75-to-53 victory over Tennessee Tech.

Hap Brahams was the sensation of Maryville's track season. Hap, in addition to copping four first places in hurdle events with U-T and T.P.I., went to the state collegiate tournament at Memphis where he took first place in the 220 lows and a close second (after nearly tripping up) in the 120 high hurdles.

BASEBALL—With a record of 15 victories out of 20 games, the Scottie Ball Club set a long stride in rejuvenating the game on the hill for their first regular season since 1942.

The Scots displayed a strong hitting and pitching force, all-around good field work, and promise of continued high standing in baseball for Maryville, since none of the varsity nine are seniors.

WRESTLING—Maryville's wrestlers began their 1948 season with four lettermen: Captain Ken Ross, Henry "Tubby" Callaway, Herschel Merriman and John Briggs, returning to the mat.

Earl Black, J. A. Cameron, and Herbert Palmer were promising newcomers to the Orange and Garnet squad.

At this writing, the Scot matmen had six matches to go, with Appalachian State, Western North Carolina, and Auburn yet to test the Scots' strength.

INTRAMURALS—The arrival of Kenneth P. Johnson as intramural director was the "Go" signal for the men's intramural sports program for the year 1947-48.

A tennis ladder, a series of swimming meets, an intramural track meet, men's soccer, volley ball, basketball, and touch football were included in the sports program for the fall semester.

Intramural touch football, after ten weeks of play, came to a boil in a heated clash between K.M.A. and the Eight Balls for the championship game. The Garnet All Stars smashed the Orange All Stars, 12-0.

The holidays cut the volley ball and basketball seasons into the halves of five weeks play. As the second five weeks came to a close, the basketball scene was dominated by four strong squads—Eight Balls, Vikings, Dingoes, and the Rebels. The Vikings and the Eight Balls held the lead a week before the tournament.

Tumbling was a new addition to the intramural program early in January.

Softball remained the other major intramural sport for the spring intramural agenda.

THE MARYVILLE

Maryville College is proud of the graduates it sends into the different parts of the world. It is no less proud to have its name carried to many parts of the world under the label of the College Maid Shop. In peace, and in war College Maid has served well the many individuals and agencies that look to her for nurse uniforms. Wherever American girls are nursing, College Maid is serving also, and everyday happy thanks and proud tributes are returned to the shop for work done there.

U. S. S. Solace

"Thank you for the excellent workmanship, and you may be sure those uniforms are seeing real action and doing sea duty."

LT. KATHERINE TASKER

U. S. S. Relief

"Thank you very much for sending them to me so promptly. They are beautifully made and fit perfectly."

LT. COMDR. EVELYN ERICKSON

U. S. S. Haben

"I am well pleased".

LT. VIVIAN ABSHIER

Pearl Harbor

"Numerous nurses have commented upon the good services; and still the same quality. My uniforms fit well."

LT. COMDR. VALORIE VAUBEL

(written morning after Pearl Harbor bombing—Dec. 7, '41)

Tutulla, Samoa.

"Thank you so much for your prompt services. Will radio money out if no mail service."

LT. SUSAN J. ENGLISH, Chief Nurse

Ann Bernatitus, only woman to escape death or capture on Bataan and Corregidor, and first woman to receive the decoration The Legion of Merit says—"would appreciate it, if this order could be filled at once, as I lost all my uniforms when I escaped."

COLLEGE MAID SHOP

The College Maid serves the college also. Mrs. Kathryn McMurray, founder and supervisor of the shop says: "the College maid shop is one place where there is always work for the girl who needs money. Any college girl may come in and work for an hour or several hours so long as she remembers that her purpose in Maryville College is to study and not to sew. "But money making is not the only service of the shop to the college girls. Through the use of shop equipment many girls are able to make many of their own clothes and clothes for others. The shop instructors are proud of the many expert seamstresses they have produced. Any girl can learn to sew if she is willing to match her patience with that of the instructors in the shop, and many comments from satisfied customers attest to the value and efficiency of this training.

U. S. S. Benevolence

"Liked them very much and would like more"

LT. VIRGINIA TRESCO

U. S. S. Consulation

"The uniforms arrived and I was so very glad to get them".

LT. THELMA TRESCO

Guam M. I.

Thank you for the prompt response to my orders".

LT. MARION OLDS

(Jap war prisoner for two years)

Bethesda, National Naval Medical Center

"My appreciation for your very prompt and courteous filling of my orders is a thing beyond words. They fit well, and compared to my south-Pacific worn uniforms they are simply beautiful."

LT. VIRGINIA BECKER

The college Maid Shop is always at your service. When you buy College Maid you are helping some girl through college.
